

WHAT MAKES LEADERS DIFFERENT FROM FOLLOWERS?

Tom Hopkins, "Master Leaders", page 8, May, 2007

L Leaders fall in LOVE with what they do. If you don't love it, you won't put forth the effort the position, cause, job, or situation deserves.

E Leaders are ENTHUSIASTIC about life, their jobs, their organizations, and the people they lead, as well as the people they serve!

A Leaders have the right ATTITUDE about the goals and objectives. Attitude is everything in leadership.

D Leaders have a strong DESIRE to learn about their situation and the needs and desires of those they lead.

E Leaders EMULATE other great leaders. They read stories where leadership skills are displayed, and they read biographies of great leaders, as well as watch great leaders at work.

R Leaders have earned the RESPECT of the people who are following them. They treat that respect (and trust) like the unique treasure it truly is. They praise and laud others when they see them demonstrate leadership.

S Leaders enjoy the SUCCESS Leadership provides; each success helps lay the foundation for the next.

H Leaders are HUMBLE about their success---pleased with the result, but always open to learning more. They seek recommendations for refinements.

I Leaders have IMAGINATION to envision their next position of growth. They carry forward lessons learned.

P Leaders are PASSIONATE about life, the goal, the project, the organization, and their part in it. Followers can tell whether or not you're passionate! IF YOU ARE NOT, WHY SHOULD THEY BE?
